TODAY'S CAST AND CREW.....

Invocation	Sheryl Monaughan
President's Pick	Charlene Underhill Miller
Presiding	Jack Gregory
Speaker Introductions	Len Lanzi
Speaker	Tim Jackman
Guest Introductions	Melissa Dagodag
Song/Pledge Leader	Pat Bofird / Carol Jackson

Pat Bofird leads us in song as Prez Jack and Len Lanzi sing along.

Rosemary sings cheerily along.

Thank you Sheryl Monaughan for leading us in today's invocation.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

The board will be meeting Tuesday to discuss incorporating.

Ron Davis is the Director of International Service and reminded us of the upcoming Trinidad Tabago trip in March.

Unity Resource Festival is Sunday March 8th 2:00pm-3:00pm Virginia Park. We are recognized as the "unsung hero" in SM. Our goal is to get the word out to youth organizations on how to apply for grants.

TAX TIME WITH JACK...

Grace Chen Braun gets an exposure tax for having your photo on the front of the California Community Foundations News for Donors.

Jay Gross is recognized with an eyestrain tax.

Tish Tisherman and Nancy Freedman are recognized with a stingy tax for not having enough books for Character Collection at SAMO library.

Looking extremely comfortable on stage, Len Lanzi introduces our cRaFt TaLkErS Tim Jackman entertained us with stories and pictures from his youth. Charlene Underhill Miller, our other cRaFt TaLkEr let us know that not only is she married to past SM Club member John Miller, that Stanford is actually a preschool. Who knew???

Rotary Character Collection at Santa Monica High School library is prominently positioned just inside the door and has some nice signage and each of the books has a nice label recognizing the Rotary Club of Santa Monica. The shelf does look a little light on books though. It would be great if we could help grow it a little more this year. Anyone have any ideas?

What have we learned in 2 millennia?

"The budget should be balanced, the Treasury should be refilled, public debt should be reduced, the arrogance of officialdom should be tempered and controlled, and the assistance to foreign lands should be curtailed lest Rome become bankrupt. People must again learn to work, instead of living on public assistance." - Cicero - 55 BC Evidently nothing.

Rotary Centers for International Studies in peace and conflict resolution Overview

Rotary World Peace Fellows are leaders promoting national and international cooperation, peace, and the successful resolution of conflict throughout their lives, in their careers, and through service activities. Fellows can earn either a master's degree in international relations, public administration, sustainable development, peace studies, conflict resolution, or a related field, or a professional development certificate in peace and conflict resolution.

Each year, up to 110 Rotary World Peace Fellowships (60 master's degree fellowships and 50 professional development certificate fellowships) are offered on a competitive basis at seven Rotary Centers, which operate in partnership with eight leading universities (centers offer master's degree unless noted otherwise):

- Chulalongkorn University , Bangkok, Thailand (professional development center)
- Duke University and University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill , USA
- International Christian University , Tokyo, Japan
- Universidad del Salvador , Buenos Aires, Argentina
- University of Bradford , West Yorkshire, England
- University of California, Berkeley , USA
- University of Queensland , Brisbane, Australia

Fellows are chosen from countries and cultures around the globe based on their ability to have a significant, positive impact on world peace and conflict resolution during their careers. Learn more about program eligibility and deadlines.

To find out more about the Rotary Centers program, contact your local Rotary club or the Rotary Centers Department at The Rotary Foundation.
